

WELCOME TO Statesville

With its location at the crossroads of Interstates 77 and 40 and proximity to exciting activities and events, Statesville may be the easiest place to find but the hardest to leave! A variety of year-round activities greet both residents and visitors alike. Residents can enjoy several city parks, including horseshoe courts, clay tennis courts, playgrounds, picnic spots and sports fields. The Statesville Civic Center offers a first-class facility for events and features a fresco, "Images at the Crossroads" by a renowned local artist.

If food and wine is more your style, Statesville offers a variety of restaurants, from traditional western NC BBQ to eclectic cafés. Statesville's proximity to the Yadkin Valley wine country offers wine aficionados many choices for local wineries. Statesville is home to two of North Carolina's most unique festivals – the Crossroads PumpkinFest, held in November, and Carolina BalloonFest, held in October. Find out more at www.ci.statesville.nc.us.

The City of Statesville is proud to be one of more than 70 public power communities in North Carolina. These communities own and operate their electric systems, offering customers excellent, local customer service, reliable electricity and prompt restoration after outages. Find out more at www.ncpublicpower.com.

NC Public Power
City Owned Electric Service